

English 30-2 Course Outline 21 - 22

Matthew Halton High School

Teacher: Mr. Clair Hockley

Introduction and Overview of the Course

Welcome to English 30-2. The Course Objectives (General Curriculum Outcomes) require each student to listen, speak, read, write, view, and represent to:

- explore thoughts, ideas, feelings, and experiences.
- comprehend and respond personally and critically to oral, print, and other media texts.
- manage ideas and information.
- enhance the clarity and artistry of communication.
- respect, support and collaborate with others.

Texts:

Drama (select one of):

- The Shawshank Redemption
- Finding Forrester
- Gran Torino

Multi-genre: Classroom Texts and a variety of resources

Literature - Selection from: (the highlighted ones are the ones we have selected)

- Death and Deliverance
- Crime and Punishment
- Fahrenheit 451
- Fallen Angels
- Finding Forrester
- A Farewell to Arms
- The Handmaid's Tale
- Into the Wild
- King Rat (2)
- Medicine River
- The Suspect
- The Wars

Nonfiction: Night by Elie Wiesel

Poetry: Classroom Texts and a variety of resources

We will also encounter various aspects of media including newspapers, magazines, movies, music and other sources of material for the above genres, some of which we may access off campus but within walking distance (i.e. Public Library). Notifications of such off-campus ventures will be sent via email prior to departure.

Controversial Issues

It is an expectation that students will become familiar with societal issues often broached in literature. Sometimes students may be asked to take and defend a position on an issue present in the textual material in the course of study. If issues challenge religious or personal convictions, students are asked to meet with the teacher to discuss the possibility of alternative topics and/or selected material and/or assessment. Parents please note: It is always the goal to ask students to think critically; it is never the intention of the teacher to convince students to choose a particular perspective, and efforts will be made to provide a balanced approach when applicable. If parents have any concerns, please contact me directly.

Course Expectations for English Students:

1. Consider: What are we learning? What is my role as a learner? What about us as a community.
2. In all things, respect.
3. Be ready for class. This means each student should be on time, have the appropriate materials ready and be prepared to work.
4. Students must assume some responsibility for their own education. That means handouts must be obtained from the teacher, get notes for missed work and be prepared for examinations.
5. Submit work on time.
6. Neatness is always a factor. Work must be assessable.
7. If you are experiencing any problems in or with the class, please communicate that with your teacher as soon as possible.
8. Students are expected to work diligently, participate in class, and attend all classes.
9. We will use Google Classroom extensively for posting and submitting assignments.

NB: Cell phone - if one is tempted to use his / her phone inappropriately, I can hold it for you until the end of the day. I will help anyone make appropriate use choices if necessary.

Grading

This Grade 12 English course approaches the Alberta curriculum outcomes, generally, in five different ways. There are overlaps between some of the components for many of the outcomes, but the outcomes get approached from a different point of view. For example, the writing in poetry differs from writing in an essay and differs again in writing fiction. Even though there are some overlaps for many of the curricular outcomes, some of the outcomes are quite specifically addressed in specific course components. The course weightings reflect the emphasis placed on the curricular outcomes in the English Program of Studies.

The first report card mark will be comprised of marks earned to that point; the final report card will reflect the summative assessments of the entire course and all the outcomes.

Evaluation: All assignments are evaluated on the stated objectives (written or oral) and with the rubric developed for the outcomes being assessed at a 30-1 level.

This course outline may be altered to meet the needs of the students. However, students and the school administration will be consulted before any changes occur.
